Welcome to the secret cellars and tunnels of the Unified Russo-Soviet Secret Services (EPCCБ), Their portals link many Mother Russias, attracting adventurers from other dimensions (via Reality Portal) and investigators from this one (via secret intel on the above-ground entrances, or through the Time Portal).

Each LAB (I-VIII) has random squad of 2d6 guards, 1/6 chance of random Leader.

Each LAIR (B-F) has 2 squads of appropriate guards, 1/2 chance of its Leader.

Each BARRACKS (1-9) has half the (total number) of its guard type.

Tunnels have 1/6 chance of encounter every 5 minutes if moving, 15 minutes if still: d8 random guards, 1/8 chance of random Leader.

All the Leaders except the Inquisitor hate each other, constantly plotting and in need of allies.

If jailed, party is visited by talking black cat to make a deal with an ordinary-looking man: the Devil.
